Tests

Collins Correspondence

What's Happening this week?

Math: We will begin Chapter 11, Division with Decimals on Monday. We will test on Chapter 11 on Friday.

Social Studies: We will begin Chapter 7 on Monday. On Tuesday, the students will be required to label the 13 Colonies. They brought home a study guide yesterday.

Reading: We are going to be doing some activities using our strategies with Halloween stories.

Writing: Our writing is in FULL swing! We will be taking the STATE WRITING ASSESSMENT in FEBRUARY! Please encourage your child to work hard as we climb this mountain together! They will do great, but we have a long way to go and our time is dwindling, fast! We will begin with Expository Writing.

Reminders:

- Thanks to all that came and took part in the Parent Picnic. It was a beautiful day and I know your child enjoyed eating lunch with you!
- THIS WEEK IS RED RIBBON WEEK! EVERYDAY HAS A THEME TO IT! JOIN THE FUN AND BE APART! A letter should be included in your child's folder about the designated days.
- Don't forget to return your money ($6) for your PE raffle tickets. This is to help cover field day in the Spring!
- H1N1 shots will be available school wide on November 10th from 9am—5pm. Be looking for more details about this opportunity.

Remember if you have questions send me an email at beth.collins@cullmancats.net or a note.

Have a great week!
