The Two Sisters-

Real-life 'sisters' Gail Boushey and Joan Moser are known by the teachers they've worked with throughout the country as researched, strategic, and fun. Their reflective practice and combined experience of +40 years has led to the development of The Daily 5, a structure for fostering literacy independence in the elementary grades. They are nationally known consultants who passionately share their expertise in assessment-driven instruction and meaningful literacy experiences for all children.

Barry Lane-

Barry Lane has taught writing at the University of New Hampshire, founded a literacy program in Vermont prisons, and worked as a writer in residence in hundreds of elementary and secondary school classrooms throughout the country. Barry is nationally known for his dynamic, hands-on workshops on writing and revision and for his popular writing books.

Bob Wortman-

Dr. Bob, as he is affectionately known by teachers, parents and students alike, is a nationally recognized presenter specializing in literacy strategies, supporting struggling readers, second language learners, and non-fiction reading and writing. He works as a consultant and is an associate professor at the University of Arizona.
