

Lesson 3: Nubia and Egypt

Directions: Write T (True) or F (False) on the line beside each statement. On the lines provided, rewrite each false statement to make it true. You may use your textbook.

- _____ 1. Nubia was a kingdom to the south of Egypt.

- _____ 2. Meroitic was the Nubian written language.

- _____ 3. Just like hieroglyphics, Meroitic was translated using the Rosetta Stone.

- _____ 4. The Nubians worshipped only one god.

- _____ 5. The Nubians invaded Egypt in search of resources.

- _____ 6. Egypt cut blocks of granite from Nubia's northern cliffs.

- _____ 7. Egypt built trading centers and forts in Nubia.

- _____ 8. Nubia expanded its borders into northern Egypt during the 1800s B.C.

- _____ 9. Kush became free under the rule of the Hyksos.

- _____ 10. After the 1400s B.C., Egypt became so weak that Kush won its independence.

- _____ 11. Meroë became a great trade center in A.D. 350.

Notes for Home: Your child learned about the relationship between Nubia and Egypt.

Home Activity: Quiz your child about Nubia and Egypt by reading key sentences from the book with important words left out. Ask your child to supply the missing words or ideas.