

Dear Parent,

I am delighted that your child is in my class as we begin the 2008 - 2009 school year at Hale Middle School! We can look forward to many exciting and rewarding experiences as the year progresses. The following information will give you the general course content for the subjects of Language Arts (English) and Social Studies (Our World). Below are policies common to the two courses. Please sign and detach the bottom portion of the contact page after reading all of the information and return it to me with your child.

Behavior:

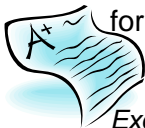

Students are expected to be responsible for their own behavior. Classroom and school rules have been reviewed and all students have been made aware of the rewards and consequences for their behavior choices. Information about school-wide student behavior has also been provided in the "Binder Reminder." Parents will be contacted regarding behavior issues if the need arises. The sixth grade team, House Leader, Counselor and / or Administrator may be involved in school related behavior issues if necessary.

Supplies:

Students are expected to have the following with them on a daily basis: Literature / Social Studies text books, Interactive Student Notebook, 3-ring binder (w/ sections for Language Arts and Social Studies), "warm-up" (spiral) notebook, an ample supply of notebook paper, blue or black pens, a red pen for correcting, and a highlighter. Additionally, students are to have a reading book with them at all times. A specific supply list was sent home on the first day of school. Please contact me directly with your questions.

Grading:

In Language Arts and Social Studies, students earn 'points' on completed assignments which are averaged in each of the weighted grade categories (see course specific information as follows). Students will find their class percentages falling into place on the "Class Grading Scale." On Progress and Report Cards, the "School's Grading Scale" will be used. (The system does not allow for the reporting of +'s and -'s.) Students will be made aware of their accurate class percentages.

6th Grade Language Arts (English)

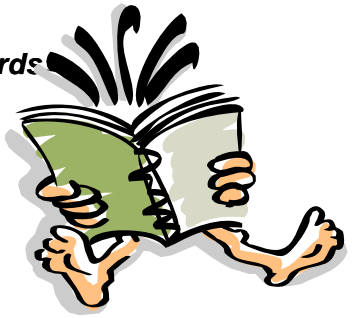

Course Content and Grading Information

In Language Arts (English), the literature program includes the “into, through, and beyond” approach to reading and the language experience. The program provides practice in reading, speaking, writing, comprehension, listening, and critical thinking. Students will be exposed to a variety of genres throughout the year, including short stories, novels, poetry, non-fictional text, folktales and myths. We will be using the Prentice Hall Literature Textbook Series and Spelling Skills Workbook, in addition to core literature novels.

The writing component includes instruction and practice in grammar, spelling, language mechanics, vocabulary development, and reference skills. The writing process will be utilized throughout the year. Students will apply these skills through written exercises, research reports, oral presentations, creative writing, as well as book reports.

All instruction will be guided by the California Language Arts Content Standards

These academic standards will be described to students as they are covered. All students will be provided with a complete copy of the standards to keep in their binders. Standards are posted in the classroom as well. CA State Standards can also be accessed at <http://www.cde.ca.gov>.
