

Fifth Grade Homework

Name: _____

For the week of: January 19th - 23rd

Monday:

School is Closed to observe Martin Luther King Junior's Birthday, Relax and Enjoy your day off!

Tuesday:

Reading Comprehension: Read the attached TFK articles and complete the comprehension/vocabulary activities.

Math: Complete Ch. 17, Lesson 1: pg. 157 & 158 in your math homework workbook.
Lesson: Hands On: Plot Points on a Coordinate Grid

Wednesday:

Grammar: Complete the attached grammar practice to prepare for the quiz on Friday.

Math: Complete Ch. 17, Lesson 2: pg. 159 & 160 in your math homework workbook.
Lesson: Interpret Graphs of Ordered Pairs

Thursday:

Books Ahoy! Enjoy reading extra minutes tonight. Remember to be jotting down notes about your Biography book following each chapter so that you can have a reference when you begin to write the outline/rough draft of the literature response.

Math: Complete Ch. 17, Lesson 3: pg. 161 & 162 in your math homework workbook.
Lesson: Graphs of Function

Weekly Google-Docs Assignment:

- Choose from the following articles: "The Great Nut Debate", "Crisis in the Middle East", or "Welcome to the White House".
- Analyzing a News Story: Use the "Analyzing a News Story" graphic organizer to take notes while reading. Then write a cohesive, organized summary of the article using your notes.

I. Begin your response by introducing the importance of the event/topic. Be sure to answer the 5 "W's" and an "H". (Try to incorporate a new vocabulary word you may have learned this week from Wordly Wise or TFK and underline the word in your writing!)

BOOKS AHOY PIRATE LOG! Week 1: Be sure to keep track of your nightly reading minutes, at least 20 minutes, in your pirate log and bring it to class on Friday morning for tallying.

Bring your homework folder to & from school every day!