

Fifth Grade Homework

Name: _____

For the week of March: 23rd - 27th

Monday:

Spelling Review: Complete the attached spelling review pages to prepare for the Theme 4 assessment Wednesday.

Math: Complete Lesson 16-5 pg. 214 in your math homework workbook.

Lesson: More Patterns and Equations

Tuesday:

Vocabulary Development: Complete the attached vocabulary review to prepare for the Theme 4 assessment Friday.

Math: Complete Lesson 16-6 pg. 216 in your math homework workbook.

Lesson: Problem Solving

Wednesday:

Reading Comprehension: Read the attached TFK magazine and complete the comprehension quiz and map activity.

Math: Complete Lesson 16-3 pg. 210 in your math homework workbook.

Lesson: Use Reasoning

Get your Colonial Days costume ready to go for tomorrow's events.

Thursday:

Math: Complete the attached study guide to prepare for the assessment on Friday

Weekly Google Docs Writing Assignment: Narrative Writing: Narrative compositions are meant to tell a story. Remember that in a story there should be literary elements that include characters, setting, and plot. Character development is a key component to make a story come alive and capture the reader's attention.

Write a character sketch:

1. Find a picture of an unusual or unique person from a magazine, newspaper, or print from the internet. Create a character sketch and be sure to attach the picture of your character. Be sure to brainstorm ideas first including the following character elements.
2. Give this individual a name
3. Identify where the person was born.
4. Include facts about his/her family and education.
5. Describe typical behaviors of this individual, what does this person like to do?
6. What do other people think of this person?
7. What are some personality traits of the person?
8. What does this person like to eat?
9. Who are friends of this person?
10. Any other interesting background information you can develop to make this "fictitious character" come alive.

Bring your homework folder to & from school every day!