

History Weekly Extra Credit Opportunity

Use the weekly Current Events on Classzone.com (This is the website of the publisher of our History books, McDougal Littell.)

The procedure for this follows below.

1. Go to Classzone.com
2. You will be prompted for the Book Finder
 - a. At 1: Click the button for Social Studies / Middle School
 - b. At 2: Click on CA
 - c. At 3: Click GO
 - d. On the next screen, click on your History textbook
3. On the screen, click the Current Events link in the Current Events section.
4. In the upper right corner, click the globe with question marks for Weekly Quiz
5. Print out the quiz and take it.
6. You will receive 1 extra credit point for each correct answer up to 4 pts. You must read each question, and each correct answer. Just printing the quiz will not receive points.
7. If your parents sign the quiz, you will receive an extra credit point. Their signature does not mean they agree with your answers, but just that you have discussed the quiz with them.
8. A new quiz is posted weekly by the publisher (usually on Friday). You may earn up to 5 extra credit points a week. Maximum grade in History is 110% on report cards.
