Alphabet Fun!

You're in charge of our "Beginning Sound" Jar. Please bring the jar back to school on our next day of school filled with objects that begin with a sound not used yet. Try to remember to check what sounds we have already used, so we do not repeat our sounds over and over. All the objects must begin with the same sound, please don't mix them.

Before you bring the jar in, review all item names. Don't Tell Anyone Else What Sound Your Jar Covers . . . not even your best friend. The class will guess your sound.
