Summary of what I read in this section:

Vocab words to add to my list:

Write a discussion question. Ideas: Are you confused about anything from the book? Do you have a question for a character or the author? Is there an important detail that you are hoping to find out more about?

Write 2-3 sentences about what you predict is going to happen after the section that you just read. Why??

What connections can you make? (self-text-world)
