

Fiction

Name _____

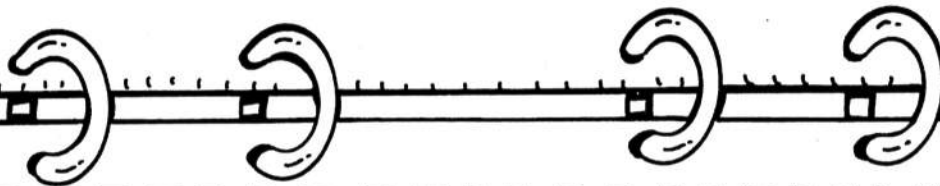

Title _____

Author _____

Illustrator _____

Directions Use the cover illustration and title to make a prediction before you read.

Directions Use illustrations and/or chapter titles to browse through the book. Then make a prediction.

Character Pyramid

Directions

Choose a character. Then complete the character pyramid below.

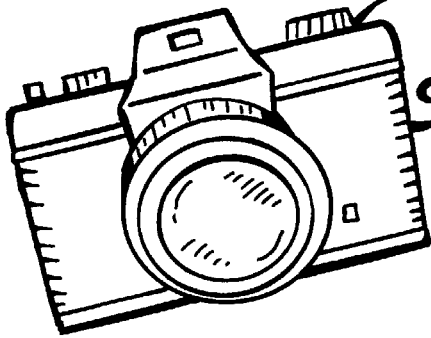

_____ character

The pyramid is divided into several sections for analysis:

- Top surface: A flat rectangular area where the character is standing.
- Left slanted side: Labeled "feelings" at the top and "relationships" further down. It contains several horizontal lines for writing.
- Right slanted side: Labeled "problems" at the top and "traits, qualities" further down. It contains several horizontal lines for writing.
- Front face: Labeled "actions, behavior" at the top and "how character changes" further down. It contains several horizontal lines for writing.
- Bottom edge: A dashed line with small tick marks, labeled "SUPPORT WITH PROOF!" on both the left and right sides.

For Discussion

Share and explain your responses.

Story Focus

Directions

Identify important points in the beginning, middle, and end of the story.

Beginning/First...

Middle / Then...

End/Finally...