

1900 The Wonderful Wizard of Oz and 1938 Wizard of Oz Elements of a Fairy Tale Rubric

Fairy Tale: 8.RL.2 Explain explicit references to elements of social, cultural, and historical context in a literary work, a documentary, or a film.

Elements of a Fairy Tale: Definition Fairy tales begin with 'once upon a time...' -usually- and the story is developed around the choices a young person makes to get out of and/or resolve a bad predicament. 8.F.1 Identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict (denouement).	Students identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Students analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict.
Elements of a Fairy Tale: Characters a. The main character (protagonist) is a young person in the bad predicament. b. Minor characters in a fairy tale are royalty, those with good or evil personalities, one with an omniscient point of view. c. Fairy tales are filled with magic and magical beings, like: giants, elves, fairies, and/or witches. 8.F.1 Identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict.	Students identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Students analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict.
Elements of a Fairy Tale: Setting Settings in a fairy tale include the castles or palaces of royalty and the farms and the villages of peasants. Settings are developed with great detail. 6.F.3 Identify the imagery, symbolism, and figurative language in a story and explain how they contribute to its meaning	Students identify the imagery in a fairy tale and explain how imagery contributes to its meaning using evidence from the text to demonstrate a clear understanding of the setting.
Elements of a Fairy Tale: Theme Themes – learning to forgive and teaching certain cultural values. 7.F.3 Identify the theme of a story, or novel, whether stated or implied, using evidence from the text. 8.F.3 Distinguish theme from topic or topic sentence.	Students identify the theme, and then distinguish theme from topic using evidence from the text to demonstrate a clear understanding of the theme as "learning to forgive and teach certain cultural values."
Elements of a Fairy Tale: Why fairy tales??? Denouement: Fairy tales have happy endings The bad predicament is resolved. The protagonist shows forgiveness to those who opposed her/him and by doing so she/he teaches certain cultural values. 8.F.1 Identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict (denouement).	Students identify qualities, beliefs, and assumptions of central characters in a novel. Students analyze how these influence relationships among characters and the resolution of the conflict.	