December 2, 2008

Today is the 59th day of first grade.

Welcome back to school! I hope you all had a safe and healthy Thanksgiving holiday. This month will be short, but sweet, and we need to hit the ground running. To that end, I am letting to know of some volunteer opportunities that you may be interested in joining.

Please refer to the letter you receive in your child's folder today regarding volunteers for "The Singing Drum" performance. On Monday, December 15, we need 10 volunteers and on Friday, December 19, we need several more. Please let Inna Moore know if you can help out on either of those days.

Our study of Ghana also includes weaving our own kente cloth. For this activity it would be very helpful to have 4 parents come into 1J on Tuesday, December 9, from 1:30-3:00. There is no weaving experience needed. Please let me know if you can come in.

Please mark your calendars and plan to join us on Friday, December 19, for 1J's performance of "The Singing Drum". The performance will be in the music room at 10:30. All are welcome.

The cold and flu season is upon us and we would greatly appreciate donations of wipes and soft tissues.
