

MORE THAN 50 WAYS TO LEARN LETTERS WITHOUT HOLDING A PENCIL

1. Use magnetic letters to sequence and match letters. Build words and sentences.
2. Use felt letters or alphabet cards to sequence and match letters.
3. Put plastic letters in a feel bag or box and let student guess what letter they are feeling.
4. Paint letters on an easel.
5. Finger paint letters.

Write letters with your finger:

6. in cornmeal
7. in sand
8. in pudding (dry or prepared)
9. in foam soap
10. in shaving cream
11. in bird seed
12. in colored sand
13. Glue beans, noodles, cloth, cotton balls, miniature marshmallows, rice or paper to make mosaics in the shape of a letter.
14. Use push pins to outline letters.
15. Build letters with Play-doh, putty or bread dough.
16. Use letter stamps to sequence the alphabet or words.
17. Air write letters. Use a dowel with colorful streamers attached.
18. Water paint letters on the blackboard.

19. Make letters with wikki stix or pipe cleaners.

20. Play alphabet bingo.

21. Play mystery writing. Take student's hand and write a letter with his/her hand while his/her eyes are closed. Have student guess what letter you are writing.

22. Cut out letters with scissors.

23. Provide wooden, cardboard or paper shapes to build alphabet letters.

24. Use Scrabble tiles to match letters, build words, or sentences.

25. Use computer games and programs to reinforce letter recognition.

Use masking tape or rope to make letters on the floor and have children:

26. Trace letters with their feet.

27. Walk or crawl on the letters following the path of the letter.

28. Drive toy cars on the letters.

29. Follow the shape of the letter by "painting" with a paint roller (paint free, of course).

30. Roll out letters with rolling pins.

31. Hop or jump along the letter lines.

Make alphabet cards for matching (visually or by touch) and tracing with:

32. Colored glue

33. Yarn and glue

34. Dry Jell-O and glue

35. Puff paint

36. Glue and sand or cornmeal mixture

Note: You can make the tactile alphabet cards by either cutting out alphabet shapes from cardboard and covering it with the tactile media or by "writing" the letter with glue and covering that area with the tactile media.

Write letters on:

37. Magna-doodles

38. Clay trays (Styrofoam tray with clay spread on it. Use a dowel to write the letters in the clay.

39. Blackboards

40. Dry-erase boards

41. Paper with sandpaper under it

42. Paper with a bumpy board under it

43. Sort letters

44. Play "go fish" with alphabet cards

45. Fish for letters using a homemade fishing pole with a magnet hanging on a string. Letter cards can have paperclips placed on them.

46. Complete an alphabet puzzle of all letters or sequence alphabet cards.

47. Make alphabet cards and cut them into half and have the student match them.

48. Have students match upper and lower case alphabet letters.

49. Find letters in magazines, books, on cereal boxes and other household items.

50. Hide letters in sand, rice and beans or birdseed and have students find them and identify them by feeling them.

51. Make an ABC book by cutting out pictures that start with a given letter.

52. Sponge paint letters.

53. Play "I spy" with letters. For example: "I see the letter r hiding on this page"; "I see a word that begins with the letter r." Then have the student find the letter or word.

copyright 1998, Maxanna Learning Systems
Handwriting: Not Just in the Hands.

54. Play Concentration or Memory with the letter cards. Place cards face down. Each student takes a turn by turning over two cards. If they match, they are removed. If they don't match, the cards are turned over again and the next student plays. Use as many or as few matching letter cards as you want.
55. Make body letters. Give several students a letter to make. Have the students use their bodies to form the letter. They may try doing this standing or lying on the floor. Have other students guess the letter.
56. Sew letters by making your own lacing cards in the shape of letters or having the students sew their names onto colored burlap.
57. Play "guess a letter." Give clues about a letter and have students guess the letter. "I am thinking of a letter that is short, and comes after d in the alphabet." Ask the student to tell the name and sound of the letter.
58. Play "what letter is missing." Sequence alphabet cards from A to Z. Remove several letters and have students guess what letter is missing.
59. Play "that's not right." Sequence alphabet cards but misplace several cards. Have the students find the errors and correct them.
60. And when students are ready to write letters on paper, do it with:

Crayons
Markers
Chalk
Paint
Grease pencils
Colored pencils
Vibrating pens and a Number 2 pencil.