

Charlevoix Middle School

Breakfast Club Meeting

April 24, 2007

7:45 a.m. – 8:35 a.m.

The mission of Charlevoix Middle School is to help all students attain a positive self-image while growing intellectually, socially, emotionally, and physically.

NCA Goals: Improve reading, writing, and math problem-solving & computation.

Present: Allison Joseph, Kelly Romano, Kris Way, Bev Mays, Keith Haske, Susan Klooster

School Election Issues - Keith reminded parents to vote on May 8th. He explained the Headlee amendment override and mentioned the board of education election.

School Safety Issues – Virginia Tech incident – Social Studies teachers used this as an educational tool and talked about bullying, kids being picked on or left out, etc. We will have an unannounced lockdown drill at school before the end of the school year.

Feedback from NWEA and MEAP – Student reports went home with 3rd marking period report cards. Parents thought this was good information. The last NWEA testing window opens May 7th.

Budget and numbers for next year – Keith said there have been several budget meetings and, unfortunately, there will be teacher lay-offs this year. Smaller class sizes means fewer class sections. The budget goes to the Board in May and next year's budget should be finalized by the June meeting.

Parents asked about the change of sports seasons effecting high school sports next year. Keith said the middle school athletic directors agreed to keep our seasons the same at least for another year.

There is not another PAC meeting scheduled for the school year at this time.
