Our story this week is a nonfiction piece "Whose Habitat Is It". With this story we will focus on summarizing and identifying the main idea and supporting details.

This week in writing the students are working on their citizenship essays. This ties in with our Social Studies lessons as well. Our topic is citizenship and the Constitution.

This week's skills work with finding differences, calculator skills, and money.

Communication Sheet

Please remember to sign your child's communication sheet each night....even if they have no unfinished work.

Curriculum Night is Thursday at 5:45

This Week's BIST TIP

3 reasons kids get in trouble & what they need from adults:

1. They don't know any better. They need information about home and school rules to understand why that behavior is wrong.
2. They test limits. They need consistency in adult expectations, calm reactions and reliable consequences.
3. They can't manage their feelings. They need practice in identifying and expressing their feelings in a respectful way.
