November 4, 2009

Dear Parents,

The week of November 15–21 has been proclaimed American Education Week 2009. Celebrated annually, the theme of this year's American Education Week is Great Public Schools: A Basic Right and Our Responsibility. In recognition of this and to celebrate our excellent public schools, you are cordially invited to visit your child's school on Tuesday, November 17, 2009. The schedule for visiting the schools is as follows:

Elementary Schools: 10:15 to 11:15 a.m., 2:15 to 3:15 p.m.
Hammarskjold Middle School: 9:00 to 10:00 a.m., 12:45 to 1:45 p.m.
Churchill Junior High School: 9:00 to 10:00 a.m., 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.
East Brunswick High School: 8:15 to 9:15 a.m., 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

In order to minimize the disruption, we ask that you please do not bring younger children with you and that you come only during the times designated above. In order to make sure that there is space for everyone who wants to visit, please limit your stay in each classroom. When visiting, please check in at the security desk where you will be asked to show identification and you will receive a visitor's pass.

I hope that you will be able to participate in this celebration, a unique opportunity for you to witness a typical day inside our schools.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jo Ann Magistro,
Superintendent of Schools
