

Arlington Central School District
Special Education Parent Teacher
Association (SEPTA), subcommittee of the Arlington Council of PTAs

Come Join Us!

- ◆ Understanding Your Child's Individual Education Program (IEP)
- ◆ Annual Reviews—Your Rights, Steps to Resolve Concerns and Mediation Services
- ◆ Preparing for a CSE Meeting

Date:
Thursday,
February 16, 2012

An information session touching on all of these topics will be presented by Joyce Hawk of the Hudson Valley Special Education Parent Center. All are invited to attend—high school students with an IEP, parents, teachers, and school personnel .

Time:
7:00—9:00 p.m.

Where:
Arlington High School
Room LGI 1432
1157 Route 55
LaGrangeville, NY 12540

What is SEPTA?

Just as Arlington's PTAs are a voice and advocate for children and families, Arlington's SEPTA is a voice for children receiving Special Ed services and their families, as well as an informational resource and support network for parents. This is the first of ongoing monthly meetings to be held by SEPTA.

For more information, please contact:
Becky Coles, SEPTA Committee Chair
845-392-3446 or becky.jp.coles@gmail.com

