Schedule Form

We're going to be a busy group year-round, multiple projects going on at once, things like that. I need to know where everyone is throughout the day so that if we need help, I can pull the appropriate people from a study hall before I go after people in an AP class. I can't get you out of class if I don't know where you are!

I have emailed this form to everyone. You can print off that form and give it to me, or you can just email me your schedule, or you can fill this out right now. Your call.

*If you are a TA during Study Hall, list the teacher for who you are TAing.

When would be your preferred time to have meetings? _____

Would you be willing to take a turn getting food for a morning meeting? This does include paying for it, but you'd only have to do it once. _____
