Al Neuharth Free Spirit Scholarship and Conference

The Al Neuharth Free Spirit Scholarship and Conference program annually awards college scholarships to high school seniors who are interested in pursuing a career in journalism and who demonstrate qualities of “free spirit.”

The students come to Washington, D.C., in March to receive their awards and participate in a journalism conference, which culminates with attendance at the Al Neuharth Free Spirit of the Year ceremony.

The scholarships and conference are designed to assist students in pursuit of a journalism career and to inspire them through conference sessions with prominent media professionals.

To apply: www.freedomforum.org/freespirit
Annual deadline for application: October 15

To be eligible, you must:

- Be a high school senior.
- Be involved in journalism and provide samples of your work.
- Demonstrate qualities of “free spirit” in your academic or personal life.
