

Rubric for Assessing Presentations

Criteria	Level 1 (50-59%)	Level 2 (60-69%)	Level 3 (70-79%)	Level 4 (80-100%)
Knowledge and Understanding Understanding of presentation topic	- demonstrates limited understanding of presentation topic	- demonstrates some understanding of presentation topic	- demonstrates considerable understanding of presentation topic	- demonstrates thorough understanding of presentation topic
Summary of ideas and information	- shows little ability to distinguish main ideas from secondary ideas	- shows some ability to distinguish main ideas from secondary ideas	- shows considerable ability to distinguish main ideas from secondary ideas	- shows excellent ability to distinguish main ideas from secondary ideas
Applications Use of mathematical terminology	- rarely uses correct terminology	- sometimes uses correct terminology	- generally uses correct terminology	- always or almost always uses correct terminology
Mathematical content	- presentation rarely reflects mathematical understanding	- shows some use of data analysis tools to solve topic problems	- shows considerable use of data analysis tools to solve topic problems	- presentation reflects thorough mathematical understanding
Use Communications technology	- demonstrates limited use of communications technology	- demonstrates some effective use of communications technology	- demonstrates considerable effective use of communications technology	- demonstrates excellent use of communications technology
Communication	- ideas are rarely stated clearly and rarely connected	- ideas are somewhat clearly stated and somewhat connected	- ideas are clearly stated for the most part and the ideas mostly connect	- ideas are clearly stated and the ideas thoroughly connect
Presentation Skills	- presenter's voice is rarely clear	- presenter's voice is somewhat clear	- presenter's voice is usually clear	- presenter's voice is always or almost always clear
Visual Aids	- visual aids are rarely used to enhance the presentation	- visual aids are sometimes used to enhance the presentation	- visual aids are usually used to enhance the presentation	- visual aids are consistently used to thoroughly enhance the presentation
Thinking/Inquiry /Problem Solving Organization of presentation	- presentation is rarely clear and logical	- presentation is somewhat clear and logical	- presentation is most often clear and logical	- presentation is always or almost always clear and logical
Audience Questions	- presenter is rarely able to respond to questions from the audience	- presenter is somewhat able to respond to questions from the audience	- presenter is generally able to respond to questions from the audience	- presenter is consistently able to respond to questions from the audience