BLUE BETTA ACTIVITIES

“FALL” INTO LA

~In Grammar we are working with pronouns. We will have a quiz tomorrow-Thursday, October 22nd.

~ Spelling test was given today, Wednesday, October 21st. We will not do Spelling next week. We will be doing it every other week. This will allow more focus on completing the Personal Narrative Writing project.

~This week, I am calling students up to share their Reading Benchmark scores, provide feedback on their Timed Writing piece, as well as discuss their Spelling Inventory. his Friday, October 23rd, we will take the Reading MAP test during LA class.

~This week our focus in writing is the Personal Narrative – students should have the rough draft complete by Monday, October 26th as we will be revising with writing partners next week. Also, Red Ribbon Poetry this week – due Friday, October 23rd.

~In Reading, students continue to read the novel, LOSER by Jerry Spinelli. We will do vocabulary work, comprehension, finding literary devices and imagery and writing with this novel.

Social studies

Students will take an open book test on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. We will move on to Ch. 5- Routes of Exploration. We will complete vocabulary and go to Science Lab on Friday.

Thanks for your kind words of encouragement.....we are on the mend at the Hunt house. ☺

~Proud to be your teacher~

SCIENCE

This week students are finishing up their projects on weather. This group is doing a wonderful job on using their time wisely. I am very impressed with the creativity that I am seeing. There will be a vocabulary test over this unit on Monday, October 26th. They will also be tested over the 4 types of clouds and the 6 weather instruments. These, along with their vocabulary words, are found in their Science Spiral.
