

Where did
the Inuits
live?

Alaska and
Northern Canada

What is the climate
like where
the Inuits lived?

Arctic Region
where the temperature
is below freezing
much of the year

Where did
the Kwakiutl live?

Pacific
Northwest Coast

What was
the
climate like
for the Kwakiutl?

Rainy, mild climate

Where did
the Sioux live?

Interior Lowlands
called the
Great Plains

What was the climate like
for
the

dry grasslands

Where did
the Pueblos
live?

In the Southwest
in what is now
New Mexico and Arizona

What was
the area like where
the Pueblos lived?

Desert and areas
bordering mountains
and cliffs

Where did
the Iroquis live?

Northeast
North America
called the
Eastern Woodlands

What was
the climate like
for
the Iroquis?

It was mild and
heavily forested.

Who were the first Americans?

the
Native Americans

How did the
First Americans
get their food?

They fished,
hunted,
and
harvested crops.

What was the
First Americans'
clothing made of?

Animal Skins
and
Plants

What did the
First Americans
used for their housing?

Their shelter was made
of resources found in
their environment
- sod, stones,
animal skins,
wood

What two things
influenced
how the
First Americans
lived?

Geography
and Climate

