

Geography Jeopardy

| Name That Continent!     | Water, Water                              | Cry me a River                             | Landforms                                                               | Region? What Region?                             | Regions                |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 100the number of continents | 100located East of the US                    | 100longest and most important river system    | 100large body of water that separates the continents                       | 100tall rugged mountains from Alaska to Mexico      | 100oldest mountain range  |
| 200the US is located here   | 200located West of the US                    | 200located in Washington State                | 200large stream of water that empties into an ocean, lake or another river | 200along the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf of Mexico      | 200oldest rock formations |
| 300located South of Europe  | 300the number of oceans                      | 3002 rivers that flowed into the Mississippi  | 300body of water surrounded by land                                        | 300stretch from Canada to western Alabama           | 300high elevations        |
| 400located West of Asia     | 400located South of Asia                     | 4002 rivers that were transportation arteries | 400arm of an ocean or sea that is partially enclosed by land               | 400between the Sierra Nevadas and Rocky Mts.        | 400fertile valleys        |
| 500makes up Eurasia         | 500form the border between the US and Canada | 500the Gateway to the West                    | 500a stream or river that flows into a larger river                        | 500between the Rocky Mts. and the Interior Lowlands | 500varying elevations     |

Geography Jeopardy

Geography Jeopardy

| Name That Continent!             | Water, Water                                         | Cry me a River                                       | Landforms                                                   | Region? What Region?                          | Regions                                                  |
|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| 200located South of the US          | 200located North of the US                              | 200flows through the Interior Lowlands and into Mexico  | 200large body of land that is surrounded by water              | 200tall rugged mountains along the coast         | 200many rivers and broad river valleys                      |
| 400located East of Europe           | 400the number of Great Lakes                            | 400flows through the Great Plains and Interior Lowlands | 400deep, narrow valley with high, steep sides                  | 400between the Great Plains and Appalachian Mts. | 400eroded hills and hundreds of lakes                       |
| 600this continent is also an island | 600inland port cities grew in the Midwest here          | 600forms a border with Mexico                           | 600broad area of fairly level land that is close to seas level | 600wrapped around the Hudson Bay                 | 600flat land that gradually increases in elevation westward |
| 800this continent is farthest South | 800served as a highway for explorers and immigrants     | 800explored by the Spanish                              | 800the lowest point in North America                           | 800Continental Divide is located here            | 800serious barrier for the Europeans                        |
| 1000the landmass of Europe and Asia | 1000provided French and Spanish with exploration routes | 1000explored by Lewis and Clark                         | 1000determines the directional flow of rivers                  | 1000Death Valley is located here                 | 1000excellent harbors                                       |

Geography Jeopardy