Family Times

Summary

Weslandia

Wesley doesn't have friends at school. To make himself happy during the summer, he uses his imagination and some of the things he learned at school to start a garden. This garden becomes his own world. In time, the world he creates interests the kids who once tormented him.

Activity

Your Own World Discuss the following with a family member: What if you had the chance to create your own little world? What would it look like? Who would live there? What would you do there? Draw your own little worlds and discuss them with each other.

Comprehension Skill

Draw Conclusions

To draw a conclusion is to form an opinion after thinking about what you have read. When you draw a conclusion, be sure it makes sense and is supported by details.

Activity

"Drawing" Conclusions On a piece of paper, draw pictures about the things or people that are important to you. Have another person look at your picture, and draw a conclusion from it about your personality.
