Grammar

Subject and Object Pronouns

Pronouns used in the subjects of sentences are called subject pronouns. For example: I, you, he, she, it, we, you, they. Pronouns used as direct objects or objects of prepositions are object pronouns. For example: me, you, him, her, it, us, you, them.

Activity

Pronoun Paragraph Ask someone in your family to write a sentence or two that doesn't have any pronouns. Then, rewrite each sentence by substituting in subject and object pronouns. Take turns writing original sentences and rewriting them.
