FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TeacherWeb® Offers New Template Designs

Dallas, Texas. March 30, 2009 – TeacherWeb®, a leading provider of classroom, school, and district websites for educators, announces new website template designs free for all active clients.

“TeacherWeb® is thrilled to premier our new template designs for teachers and schools,” stated Michael Zilinkas, TeacherWeb® Chief Technology Officer. “We have been working, and will continue to work, diligently to keep TeacherWeb® fresh and exciting in order to give our educators cutting edge, creative, user-friendly options. These templates will give the opportunity for great individuality while maintaining the same ease of use for which TeacherWeb® is known.”

The new templates are dynamic and allow teachers and administrators more options to customize their classroom, school, or district website. The first group of new templates became available on March 20, 2009 for immediate use. Template options include math, science, art, and reading themes in multiple colors and designs. TeacherWeb® is currently in the process of creating a number of additional templates that will be available in the near future.

TeacherWeb® websites enhance communication between the classroom and the home. TeacherWeb® offers individual classroom websites as well as school and district packages which include integrated school sites along with classroom sites.

For more information about TeacherWeb®’s new templates, or to schedule a web demo, contact a TeacherWeb® associate at info@teacherweb.com.

About TeacherWeb®

TeacherWeb®, founded in 1997, is an innovative company providing a patented, ASP model of websites for teachers, schools, and districts. TeacherWeb® provides easy-to-use and very affordable templates and tools that allow educators to create customized classroom and school websites to improve communication with students and parents. Educators can quickly create and continuously update personalized TeacherWeb® sites with the click of a mouse.

TeacherWeb® is currently used by over 100,000 educators in over 20,000 schools in the U.S. and also has customers in over 90 countries world-wide. TeacherWeb® was acquired by Study Island, LLC in mid 2008.
